

Paul Emmanuel Biography

Born in 1969 in Kabwe, Zambia, Emmanuel graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg, South Africa in 1994. Since then, his multidisciplinary work has focused on exploring the ways mental and physical landscapes interact in their construction of memories and identities.

In 2004, on the 10th anniversary of South Africa's democracy, the first of his series of counter-memorials The Lost Men was temporarily installed at the 1820 Settlers National Monument, Makhanda (formerly known as Grahamstown) South Africa. In 2007, phase 2 of this project took place in Maputo, Mozambique and in 2014, phase 3 was installed adjacent to the Thiepval Memorial to the Missing of the Somme, Northern France as an official event of the First World War centenary.

Emmanuel's award-winning work has been exhibited at international venues including the Apartheid Museum, the Wits Art Museum, the Freedom Park Museum, the Smithsonian National Museum of African Art, Boston University Art Galleries, the Sylt Foundation, the Rotterdam Film Festival, the Edinburgh International Film Festival and the Dakar Biennale. He is represented in South African private, corporate and public collections as well as internationally in the Smithsonian National Museum of African Art, the U.S. Department of State, the Sylt Foundation, Germany and the Fontmaure Art Culture Centre, France.

In 2020, his work was the subject of a monograph published by the Wits Art Museum, South Africa and since 2022, he has served as a Fulbright Scholar in the United States researching the cultural dimensions of its public spaces, while investigating its involvement in Middle East conflicts. In 2024, he graduated with a Master's degree in Fine Arts from the Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore and in 2025, he was bestowed with an honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree (honoris causa) by the Montserrat College of Art, Boston. He is the Director of Civic Engagement for the Tour de Force Foundation, Washington D.C. and a lecturer for the Medical College of Wisconsin's discussion series: Talking with Monuments: Veteran Dialogues on Remembering. This project is supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities program, Dialogues on the Experience of War.
